Guest Speakers

JOE MIHALICH — Head Coach of Niagara University Joe Mihalich has been doing one thing better than anyone else in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, winning games. His .586 winning percentage (160-113) over his nine-year career is by far the best among active MAAC coaches with at least five years under their belts. His 160 career victories place him second among Niagara mentors in the school annals. The accomplishments during Mihalich's first decade of coaching has yielded an NCAA Tournament victory, two NCAA tournament berths, a pair of MAAC Tournament titles, a trio of MAAC regular-season crowns, national, regional and conference accolades for his student-athletes and top 25 rankings in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Poll.

HERB MAGEE - Head Coach Herb Magee ended his 41st season at the helm of the Philadelphia University basketball program with a career record of 855-340, which included a 22-12 mark this year. Magee's stellar career includes an NCAA Division II record 855 career coaching victories which also ranks fifth all-time in NCAA history, regardless of Division. Magee earned his record-breaking win in 2007 against Wilmington College, breaking the previous mark of 828 held by legendary Winston-Salem State Head Coach Clarence "Big House" Gaines.

JOHN MILLER - John Miller is one of the most respected teachers of the game of Basketball in the Philadelphia area. John has coached at all levels of the game having served as the long-time Varsity Women's Head Coach at LaSalle University and most recently having led Mount Saint Joseph's High School to the 2007-08 State Championship.

FRAN O'HANLON - Fran O'Hanlon just completed his 13th season at Lafayette, the second longest tenure in the Patriot League, and holds a 186-188 overall record. O'Hanlon's accomplishment list is long and varied. He was honored last summer when selected as a court coach for the 2007 USA Basketball Pan-American Games Team Trials. He was the first coach to win consecutive Patriot League Coach of the Year honors. He has won three League regular season championships and led his team to two NCAA Division I Basketball Tournaments, while also guiding 15 student-athletes to All-Patriot League first and second team honors.
